Component Mission

The Office of the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) leads the development, negotiation, and presentation of the National Intelligence Program (NIP) budget to the President and the Congress. The CFO's three main responsibilities include resource management (budget analysis, formulation, justification, and execution), performance planning and evaluation, and financial management improvement.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

Plan, schedule and initiate activities regarding the examination and analysis of Intelligence Community (IC) component NIP budget requests and execution data to ensure accuracy and consistency with National and IC strategic priorities, compliance with guidance, regulations, laws, and usage of sound budgeting and financial management practices.

Research, develop, and conduct in-depth analysis of IC budget trends and issues. Apply critical thinking to devise and evaluate alternative strategies and innovative solutions for key program and budget issues throughout the budget process.

Interface and collaborate with the IC component Resource Managers, internal ODNI and external organization staffs to ensure program and budget recommendations to IC and Department of Defense (DoD) senior leadership are fully coordinated and satisfy priority requirements.

Plan, schedule and implement the review, editing, coordination and production processes for IC component budget justification materials to ensure timely delivery to Congress.

Assist in the monitoring of IC component Congressional budget actions and provide substantive input for appeals to Congressional budget markups.

Assist in the preparation of input to IC component and DoD Congressional budget testimony, responses to Congressional queries, Questions for the Record, Congressionally Directed Actions, and letters, memoranda and reports regarding program, budget and execution issues.

Coordinate IC component formal budget execution reviews. Assist in assessing program plans for under executing resources and in the development of strategies for realignment to other IC priorities.

Provide advice and guidance in support of IC component resource management and/or budget justification process improvement efforts.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

Thorough knowledge of budget formulation, programming, and budget execution processes for IC programs, a defense agency, or a military service.

Ability to apply analytic, diagnostic, and qualitative techniques, conduct independent research, filter and synthesize data sufficient to identify and evaluate alternatives and produce clear, logical, and concise products and recommendations to resolve complex, interrelated program and budgetary problems and issues.

Superior organizational and interpersonal skills, specifically, the ability to plan strategically and manage competing priorities, the ability to negotiate, build consensus, and work effectively in a collaborative environment, and the ability to establish and maintain professional networks across all levels of management both internal and external to the ODNI. Possess superior oral and written communication skills.

Thorough knowledge of the IC, DoD, Office of Management and Budget, and Congressional budget processes and procedures.

Desired Requirements
