The Office of the Inspector General of the Intelligence Community Supports International Fraud Awareness Week

(November 2021) The Office of the Inspector General of the Intelligence Community (IC IG) joined a global effort to promote fraud awareness with an event for the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) workforce on November 17, 2021. The program was held at ODNI's headquarters in McLean, Virginia, and the Intelligence Community Campus – Bethesda, Maryland.

Hosted in conjunction with International Fraud Awareness Week, the event raised awareness of fraud-related crimes and highlighted the importance of reporting suspected fraud, waste, and abuse to organizations that can investigate and address fraud and fraud-related issues. Fraud costs individuals, taxpayers, business, and communities billions of dollars every year.

At the outreach event, the IC IG Center for Protected Disclosures provided an overview of the center, discussed current IC IG professional opportunities, and distributed resource materials on how to contact the IC IG Hotline. For more information about the Fraud Awareness Week event or how to report suspected fraud, please contact the IC IG Hotline at 855-731-3260.
