Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- For a selected non-Federal Government candidate, salary will be established within the salary range listed above, based on education and experience.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Intelligence Community (IC) Chief Information Office is responsible for advancing the Intelligence Community's mission by driving secure collaboration, integration, and information sharing; identifying and addressing information enterprise risks; and providing strategic leadership and oversight of the Intelligence Community's enterprise architecture and enterprise information technology.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Liaise between Office of the Director of National Security (ODNI) Intelligence Community Chief Information Officer (IC CIO) and ODNI Legislative Affairs regarding plans, policies, procedures, and the evaluation of current and future budgetary and policy needs of ODNI IC CIO and the Intelligence Community (IC).
- Execute the development of ODNI briefings, and reports to Congress; identify, review, evaluate, and develop information to be presented; and anticipate congressional reactions to ODNI briefings.
- Coordinate, and evaluate the development and implementation of a comprehensive proactive, legislative strategy to facilitate IC CIO's interactions with Congress; serve as a liaison in communicating IC CIO's intelligence programs and activities to members of Congress, congressional committees and staffs.
- Lead project teams to ensure project is completed on time, effectively apply team building and coaching techniques, and exchange project or technical information with team members and contractors at formal and informal meetings.
- Oversee the work of team members; monitor work activities to ensure ODNI policies and procedures are followed; provide help or assistance to team members or others when needed; communicate needs and requirements to project team members.

- Oral and written communication skills including demonstrated ability to tactfully convey information and ideas to members of Congress, congressional committees, and their staff.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expert program management, analytic, and critical thinking skills, including the ability to conduct program and management assessments, identify needs and requirements, and develop non-linear process improvement recommendations for implementation across the IC.
- Expert experience in providing leadership, oversight, and guidance to the effective management of complex projects; in managing and mitigating risks, assessing customer requirements, identifying dependencies, and developing responsive project plans; in estimating costs and other resources using quantitative analysis to project requirements.
- Expert ability to establish regular contact with high-level internal and external resources and have periodic contacts with other offices, supplying or seeking information on specialized and non-specialized matters; excellent use of tact when expressing ideas or opinions to senior leaders, customers, contractors, and other stakeholders.
- Superior ability to balance responsibilities among project activities; ability to manage transitions effectively from task to task, adapting to varying customer needs.
- Expert knowledge of the rules of governance and project lifecycle methodologies; considerable knowledge of Project Management concepts and principles.
- Superior interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, including a demonstrated ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment and to lead and mentor junior colleagues.
- Expert ability to communicate, both verbally and in writing, complex information in a clear, concise manner that is targeted to and meets the needs of diverse audiences with different perspectives and objectives.
- Superior ability to listen to, clarify, and convey understanding of others' ideas, comments, and questions as well as to integrate and build upon diverse opinions in a manner that encourages the formation of integrated solutions and positions.
- Expert ability to develop or implement information systems security plans and procedures.

- Expert ability to perform thorough work and conscientious about attending to detail.
- Expert knowledge of one or more computer disciplines/specialties (hardware, software, networks); broad knowledge of other related disciplines.
- Expert ability to quickly identify and apply new technologies, methodologies, and technical languages.
