- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Develop collaborative relationships with intelligence officers at all levels in NCTC to promote and implement advanced analytic techniques and increased rigor in analytic products and processes.
- Provide expert guidance to the analytic workforce on the planning, analysis, and application of a full range of methodological tools and approaches to promote well-crafted, sophisticated analytic products.
- Conduct consultations with analysts to enable rigorous analytic design.
- Enable and cultivate cross-cutting communication among analysts in various subspecialties (including data analytics), ensuring consumers receive the most robust, highest quality finished intelligence on terrorism-related issues.
- Expertly provide structured analytic facilitations that enhance the value of analysis; conduct corporate facilitations that foster teambuilding and effectiveness.
- Work collaboratively with teammates to communicate training needs based on review/evaluation and of effectiveness of facilitations/consultation as reflected in products reviewed/evaluated.
- Provide analytic tradecraft training consistent with IC Analytic Integrity and Standards and best practices for adult learning in variety formats and venues.

- Develop and deliver training course material in support of NCTC/DI training program framework, as well as tailored training based on identified needs.
- Provide timely tradecraft and/or writing feedback to analysts and managers in a constructive manner.
- Display superior time management skills and ability to prioritize tasks with competing deadlines.
- Cultivate and maintain productive relationships with counterparts within ODNI and across the IC.
- Develop and continually expand personal knowledge in area of expertise and achieve a government-wide reputation as a subject matter expert in this area.
- Contribute to NCTC writing guides, tradecraft website, job aids, training materials, and other analytic resources.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Advanced degree or training in the use of analytic tools, human-centered design, or other state-of-the art approaches to intelligence analytic challenges.
- Recognized expertise in analytic tradecraft and expert knowledge of analytic integrity and standards.
- Demonstrated analytical and critical thinking skills as an intelligence analyst or manager.
- Outstanding ability to provide effective training on analytic tradecraft.
- Demonstrated expertise in structured analytic tools/technique facilitation.
- Demonstrated ability to conduct corporate facilitations.
- Outstanding written and oral communication skills.
- Demonstrated interpersonal skills and superior ability to work effectively with individuals at all levels, including senior executives.
- Demonstrated time management skills and ability to prioritize tasks with competing deadlines and superior ability to work effectively under extremely tight deadlines.
- Demonstrated ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment across organizational lines.
- Track record of inclusive behaviors that contribute to creating and maintaining a positive, professional, and high performance workplace.

Desired Requirements

- Certification as an instructor or an instructional systems designer (ISD).
- Experience providing graphic facilitation.
- Experience with data analytics and/or data visualization.

- Certification or experience in project management.
- Strong mentoring skills and experience providing guidance to other officers, including managers.
- A willingness to innovate. Ability to identify opportunities to improve on existing capabilities and practices and to follow through with practical, collaborative, and creative solutions.
- Joint Duty experience.
