Component Mission:

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs):

- Collaborate in the planning and execution of large, complex, high-level official functions in support of the Director of the National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC).
- Lead in the planning, coordination, and execution of event support, in the selection and approval of internal and external locations for official functions, and in the integration of resources and support activities of NCTC.
- Advise and guide senior leadership on the execution of complex protocol activities and functions, apply extensive understanding of the interdependencies of various support disciplines and organizations.
- Maintain productive working relationships with NCTC staff and private service providers in order to effectively develop and deliver integrated mission driven solutions to NCTC customers' protocol requirements.
- Apply the principles and methods of official events and meeting planning to prepare, design, and produce invitations, seating diagrams, guest rosters, make recommendations and purchase official gifts, and perform other administrative items related to official events and meetings.
- Define and effectively managing customer relations, ensuring that customer expectations are consistent with realistic time and cost projections and technical feasibility; lead staff in effectively discussing and resolving issues with customers, proactively identifying appropriate service providers from across the ODNI, and integrating their service delivery activities.
- Plan a successful resolution of complex support issues; lead staff in planning, developing, and implementing innovative and effective procedures and processes to solve the most complex and difficult problems across NCTC projects and/or programs; lead group problem-solving efforts, and guide others in defining, analyzing, and effectively resolving difficult problems.

- Ensure that all aspects of assigned and delegated events are organized, coordinated and monitored in accordance with ODNI guidance.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements:

- Extensive knowledge of sophisticated diplomatic and protocol procedures and demonstrated ability to plan and implement events, VIP visits, meetings, military ceremonies, and other special occasions; extensive knowledge of internationally accepted protocol methodologies and standards of diplomacy.
- Extensive knowledge of NCTC membership, structures, interrelationships, and mission priorities.
- Demonstrated ability to adhere to best practices, standard operating procedures and guidance from leadership.
- Demonstrated analytic and critical thinking skills and ability to coordinate and solve complex support-related problems, identify needs and requirements, and develop non-linear support improvement recommendations for implementation across the NCTC
- Demonstrated ability and willingness to perform a wide variety of tasks, demonstrated ability to change focus quickly and adapt work habits/schedule to meet mission requirements.
- Demonstrated ability to provide leadership and guidance in the effective coordination of support for high-level official functions; demonstrated ability to manage and mitigate risks, assess customer requirements, identify dependencies, and develop responsive plans.
- Demonstrated ability to show accountability for their work, setting and /or meeting priorities, and organizing and utilizing time and resources efficiently and effectively to achieve the desired results, consistent with the organization's goals and objectives.
- Demonstrated ability to establish regular contact with high-level internal and external resources and have periodic contacts with other offices; demonstrated use of tact and diplomacy in addressing confidential or highly sensitive events, and during contact with foreign dignitaries, senior leaders, employees and customers.
- Demonstrated ability to balance responsibilities and manage multiple projects and assignments; demonstrated ability to manage transitions effectively from task to task, adapting to varying customer needs.
- Demonstrated interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, including demonstrated ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment; and to lead and mentor junior colleagues.
- Demonstrated ability to communicate, both verbally and in writing, complex information in a clear, concise manner that is targeted to and meets the needs of diverse audiences with different perspectives and objectives.
- Extensive knowledge of Microsoft office and other graphic design software and database application systems.
- Demonstrated ability to apply knowledge of the program principles, concepts, policies, objects and methods of official events and meeting planning.
- Demonstrated ability to apply judgment in order to deliver mission driven solutions.

- One year of specialized experience equivalent to the GS-13 grade level or equivalent payband in the Federal service which involves developing, updating, and implementing a protocol program that effectively supports the organization operations command-wide.
