Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Lead and manage programmatic initiatives and the daily operations of NCTC, and collaborate with senior officials within NCTC and across ODNI to ensure strategic alignment with the mission, goals, and objectives.
- Oversee, manage, and guide the Center's complex personnel mix, budget planning and execution, procurement and operation of information technology solutions, conduct of training and development for a diverse and complex workforce, facility management and logistic requirements coordination and other actions needed to enhance the Center's operations.
- Provide direct support to the Director and Deputy Director of the National Counterterrorism Center on a myriad of complex issues, activities and programs that affect the entire ODNI, IC and other federal agencies; lead special projects that span across the ODNI, IC and with other federal agencies to resolve complex issues.
- Lead and provide guidance and direction to directorate level Chiefs of Staff on a wide variety of Center-wide programs and DNI initiatives, as well as cross-Center governance bodies that set strategic direction for the organization.
- Lead a professional staff, assess performance, and oversee goal setting, and provide feedback on personal and professional development, including the Executive Secretariat, Enterprise Management Office, and other offices that report to the Office of the Director of NCTC.
- Maintain effective working relationships within NCTC, with other ODNI and IC components and center-wide directorates to address issues that span multiple mission or program areas, such as in the areas of diversity and inclusion, integration of new personnel, etc.
- Represent the Director and Deputy Director in numerous ODNI and IC fora, as well as with the National Security Council and Congress.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Demonstrated expert-level knowledge or experience in program and project management or business administration, as well as the ability to manage complex strategic tasks and daily business operations.
- Excellent organizational, managerial, and leadership skills, including the ability to effectively manage the professional development of staff employees.
- Extensive knowledge of both the IC and ODNI budgetary requirements, personnel regulations, and resource allocation policies and procedures.
- Strong strategic and tactical planning, critical thinking and analytical skills required to propose innovative solutions, advocate for outcomes and implement change with resourcefulness and creativity.
- Proven ability to coordinate, network, communicate and exert influence effectively at all levels across the ODNI and the IC to achieve desired outcomes.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills, including the ability to clearly convey complex information to audiences of all levels.

Desired Requirements

- Prior experience leading support service organizations
- Prior experience conducting oversight of acquisition programs
