Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Intelligence Integration (DDNI/II) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. DDNI/II is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, DDNI/II is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. DDNI/II is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

Office Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Mission Integration (DDNI/MI) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the Intelligence Community's (IC) enterprise. DDNI/MI is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, DDNI/MI is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. DDNI/MI is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance. (U) National Intelligence Managers (NIM) are members of the National Intelligence Management Council (NIMC), which collectively provides the "voice of the mission" to senior leaders at the NSC, IC, and across the interagency and orchestrates the management of mission activities with regard to intelligence integration. NIMs oversee and integrate all aspects of the Intelligence Community's (IC) collection and analytic efforts against a particular region or function. Each NIM serves as single focal point within the ODNI for the integration of all activities related to the particular region or function, as well as being the DNI's specified representative on the region/function. Each NIM develops a Unifying Intelligence Strategy (UIS) to communicate and synchronize the IC. NIMs maintain senior-level contacts with the intelligence, policymaking and warfighting communities so that a full range of intelligence requirements are met on daily, short-term and long-term bases.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Serve as a primary lead for efforts to evolve the role of the National Intelligence Management Council in strategic resource decisions, primarily through the production of the Integrated Mission Strategy (IMS). Inform enterprise decisions to set strategic direction and priorities for national intelligence resources and capabilities. Tailor the IMS to provide the IC with unified, specific, and actionable planning guidance. Ensure IMS alignment vertically with the National Intelligence Strategy and Unifying Intelligence Strategies, as well as horizontally with the National Intelligence Priorities Framework and Intelligence Planning, Programming, Budgeting, and Execution processes.

- Collect, assess, adjudicate, and rank national Intelligence requirements, priorities and areas of risk through repeatable methodologies. Assist in identifying potential trade-space as well as risk identification and mitigation through the NIMC's IMS processes. Manage partnerships and communicate with stakeholders to synchronize requirements and resources, and represent the Council's position.
- Advise and provide subject matter expertise to MMG Group Chief, NIMC Vice Chairman, and NIMC Chairman on strategic integration and resource decisions as required. Support initiatives that further IC mission integration, such as changes in mission posture and crisis management. Identify and raise new ideas to advance mission management, solve problems, and advance the NIM Council and the IC.
- Conduct research to develop an understanding of relevant mission, program, and operational requirements in support of national priorities, strategies, as well as Unifying Intelligence Strategies. Assist in the identification, mitigation, and development of solutions to emerging threats, intelligence gaps, and recommendations for realignment of resources to improve intelligence support, risk management, and development of performance measures.
- Collaborate with regional, functional, and domain NIM teams to assess the mission impact and outcomes of their respective strategies and to prioritize planning and programmatic activities in alignment with national level guidance and strategy.
- Develop and advance a common lexicon of terms and definitions for NIMC-led strategies to ensure effective communication with oversight bodies, internal stakeholders, and external customers.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Demonstrated analytical and critical thinking skills, including the ability to think strategically, identify needs and requirements, develop recommendations, and evaluate outcomes against goals and objectives.
- Demonstrated ability to manage strategic and tactical level topics, and develop innovative recommendations and solutions for improvement.
- Ability to work effectively at a senior level within an interagency environment on complex issues requiring negotiation and consensus-building skills.

Desired Requirements

- Demonstrated leadership skills and ability to lead interagency working groups, build coalitions with IC elements to achieve common goals.
- Extensive knowledge of IC organizations; IC mission posture, structures, capabilities, processes, and policy development.
- Demonstrated interpersonal skills and superior ability to work effectively in both independent and in a team or collaborative environment.
