Component Mission

National Security Partnerships synchronizes IC support and whole of government efforts with federal, state and local governments, the private sector and the Department of Defense, ensuring IC outreach is coordinated, timely and relevant. It also provides key leadership for activities in four domains that operate across national sectors – aviation, maritime, space and cyber -- bringing the IC's activities in these domains into alignment, and facilitating coordinated engagement internal to the ODNI, across the IC and with the rest of the federal government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

Lead, oversee and coordinate specific ODNI engagement programs with the Department of Defense. Strengthen partnerships with the OUSDI, the Joint Staff J2, and the military services with emphasis on co-leadership of significant strategic initiatives. Expand ODNI strategic outreach to those DOD organizations at forefront of U.S. and allied doctrinal development, to include military services and DOD War Colleges. Responsible for specific program execution as defined by the ODNI/IC-DOD strategic engagement plan, which codifies and synchronizes existing and future engagements critical to addressing the most pressing IC enterprise readiness gaps germane military support. Provide subject matter expertise for specific cross-ODNI congressional engagements that involve complex, IC-DOD issues. Drive agendas for the IC-DoD Issues Forum. Closely collaborate with the Forum's Executive Secretariat. Guide and support specific elements of DNI's Combatant Command Representative program. Facilitate alignment of Rep responsibilities to those of the ODNI, to include effectively leveraging the collective expertise of the IC representatives at the Rep's command. Establish close relationships and frequent information exchanges with DOD military service intelligence elements. Serve as a conduit to identifying key service issues and inter-dependencies which impact overall IC readiness to support military forces. Provide subject matter expertise in support of DNI and PDDNI engagements with U.S. military officials. Leverage appropriate ODNI, Center and DOD expertise to do so. Contribute more broadly to NSP Directorate projects, as assigned. Work with NSP counterparts to identify cross cutting issues. Work collaboratively to achieve Directorate goals. Closely coordinate across the IC-DOD division, specifically with the Defense Strategic Issues Office. Craft an individual development plan (IDP); actively participate in training and education opportunities to achieve professional goals. Participate in cross-organizational forums to strengthen understanding of the ODNI and contribute to solving issues.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expert knowledge and significant experience in a range of IC and DOD interdependencies, ranging from missions and operations to policy formulation and resource decision-making. Demonstrated ability to develop effective plans for complex engagements involving the IC and DOD, taking into consideration a diverse range of options for IC and DOD decision makers. Solid experience negotiation and leveraging IC-DoD professional networks. Experience in effectively leading cross ODNI and IC teams tasked in solving complex intelligence challenges with significant DOD equities. Leadership and management experience, particularly in situations dealing with complexity and necessitating a corporate approach. Strong oral and written skills, particularly in synthesizing difficult, complex issues, options and recommendations for decision makers at the highest level. Proven collaborative and team building skills based project management experience. Minimal Requirements: Experience: twelve years with a combination of assignments in both the IC and the DOD.
