Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Office of Legislative Affairs (OLA) acts as the principal interface between the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) (and the Intelligence Community [IC] on certain issues) and Congress. Its charge is to facilitate the implementation of those sections of the National Security Act of 1947, which stipulate that the heads of the IC agencies shall "keep the congressional intelligence committees fully and currently informed of all intelligence activities of the United States." OLA officers provide strategic-level advice to the DNI, Principal Deputy DNI, and other senior ODNI and IC officials regarding engagements with Congress. Also, in partnership with the IC, OLA provides strategic-level coordination of those national security and intelligence issues and initiatives that require an integrated IC policy, position, or action.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Liaise between the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) and the United States (U.S.) Congress regarding plans, policies, procedures, and the evaluation of current and future budgetary and policy needs of the ODNI and the Intelligence Community (IC).
- Execute the development of ODNI testimony, briefings, and reports to Congress; identify, review, evaluate, and develop information for presentation; and anticipate congressional reactions to ODNI briefings and testimony.
- Coordinate and evaluate the development and implementation of a comprehensive, proactive legislative strategy to facilitate ODNI's interactions with Congress; serve as a liaison in communicating ODNI intelligence programs and activities to members of Congress, congressional committees, and their staffs.
- Coordinate the development and scheduling of congressional testimony, testimonies for hearings, and responses to Congressional Questions for the Record to keep the congressional intelligence committees fully informed of US intelligence activities.
- Communicate the development of responses to congressional requests for information dealing with ODNI strategic planning, budgetary issues, and other intelligence matters ensuring that complete and accurate information is provided to congressional requesters.
- Plan and prepare written and oral briefings to senior ODNI leadership and other senior IC officials on current congressional developments and views of ODNI and IC programs and activities, as well as the thinking and rationale underlying requests for information from Congress and congressional committees.

- Cultivate and maintain productive working relationships with congressional members, congressional committees, and their staffs and use these relationships to share information of interests, support a continuing dialog, and provide active insight into ongoing and planned ODNI activities.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Knowledge of ODNI, IC, U.S. Congress, congressional committees, and congressional liaison activities.
- Knowledge of trends and developments of proposed and existing legislation with the potential to affect the ODNI and the IC relative to the intelligence mission, extensive knowledge of the views of individual members of Congress and the agenda of congressional committees.
- Demonstrated ability to manage competing priorities under strict deadlines while maintaining a high level of attention to detail and the demonstrated ability to work effectively with a team of senior officers in a high profile and demanding office.
- Demonstrated ability to develop and implement ODNI's congressional strategy to improve the effectiveness and responsiveness of ODNI and the IC in communicating with and informing Congress of its activities, issues, plans and programs.
- Analytical and critical thinking skills including demonstrated ability to think strategically.
- Interpersonal organizational and problem solving skills with demonstrated ability to interact with members of Congress and with senior IC and ODNI officials.
- Oral and written communication skills including demonstrated ability to tactfully convey complex information and ideas to members of Congress, congressional committees, and their staffs.
