Former members of the Peace Corps may be considered for ODNI employment only if five full years have elapsed since separation from the Peace Corps.

- For a cadre assignment:

- Current ODNI permanent cadre.
- For a detailee assignment:
 - Current Federal Government employees. (Current GS employees at the same grade or one grade lower than the advertised position grade may apply.)

Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Director of National Intelligence (DNI) serves as the head of the Intelligence Community (IC). The DNI also acts as the principal advisor to the President and the National Security Council for intelligence matters related to national security; and oversees and directs the implementation of the National Intelligence Program. The DNI leads intelligence integration and forges an intelligence community that delivers the most insightful intelligence possible.

The Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Enterprise Capacity (DDNI/EC) is responsible to the DNI for all matters pertaining to IC resources, workforce, systems, technology and infrastructure, with five reporting components: Acquisition, Procurement and Facilities, IC Chief Financial Officer, IC Chief Human Capital Officer, IC Chief Information Officer, and Systems & Resource Analyses.

The Office of the Chief Human Capital Officer (CHCO) supports the Office of the Director of National Intelligence by establishing and overseeing the implementation of the full range of Human Capital programs, processes, and policies. The CHCO has established the Strategic Human Capital Plan for the Intelligence Community (IC) that deals directly with talent, performance, and leadership to attract, engage, and unify an innovative and results-focused workforce in support of the National Intelligence Strategy—and ultimately the security of our nation. Following the IC Strategic HC Plan, the Office of the CHCO develops and implements policies, practices, and processes that leverage commonality across the IC and maximizes the strengths of individual agencies.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Coordinating and planning outreach activities within and beyond the IC.
- Travelling to and liaising with various high priority schools and recruitment events across the US.
- Strengthening partnerships between the IC and entities such as academia and professional associations.
- Championing the IC enterprise recruiting strategies and initiatives.
- Cultivating and maintaining productive working relationships with IC HC leadership, colleagues, HR experts, and ODNI senior leadership through the execution of a monthly IC Recruitment Committee to share information of interest and explain the specifics of Recruitment and Outreach programs.
- Planning, developing, and managing complex Recruitment and Outreach projects or programs that may require generating new concepts, principles, and methods to ensure their successful implementation within the IC.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs) con't

- Advising IC and ODNI leadership on the development, implementation, and management of complex Recruitment and Outreach programs, and ensure that the programs are aligned with and directly support the IC's strategic mission objectives.
- Serving as a liaison; listening to and understanding the needs of all 17 IC elements and tailor Recruitment and Outreach programs, methods, policies, and procedures to ensure they fully meet the organization's needs and overall mission.
- Planning, developing, and presenting written and oral briefings on significant Recruitment and Outreach issues; tailor and align written products and oral briefings with overall IC mission objectives and individual member needs.
- Planning and conducting formal analyses of the strengths and weaknesses of Recruitment and Outreach programs that require resolving critical problems or developing new concepts and methodologies for programs that are of major significance to IC leadership and mission success.
- Developing strategic and tactical plans to support Recruitment and Outreach program initiatives; planning, developing, implementing, and evaluating Recruitment and Outreach programs in response to IC directives and/or mission requirements.
- Work may require full range of COTR duties.
- Work may require travel across the US. *Areas of HC Subject Matter Expertise include (in alpha order): Academic/Professional Disciplines, Compensation, Equal Employment Opportunity and Diversity, HC Information Management, HC Strategy & Policy, Learning & Development, Organizational Design, Performance and Effectiveness, Talent Acquisition, Workforce Analysis & Planning, Workforce Engagement & Relations, and Work/Life Strategies & Benefits.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements
