- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Collaborate with members of the Intelligence Community to research, produce, and disseminate counterterrorism intelligence products for federal, state, local, tribal, territorial and private sector Homeland security and public safety partners and advocate for the counterterrorism intelligence requirements and needs of these partners.
- Perform counterterrorism intelligence review and collaborative production to ensure partner intelligence needs and requirements are met; public safety experience and expertise is leveraged; and products are relevant and useful to customers.
- Conduct outreach and education activities to build and strengthen partnerships, promote awareness and understanding of partner capabilities and resources, and improve information sharing.
- Support counterterrorism partners in the planning, delivery, and evaluation of exercises; and the facilitation of training, in order to identify and address gaps and increase counterterrorism awareness and preparedness.
- Conduct research to leverage best practices and lessons learned.
- Support counterparts on tactical coordination issues for effective implementation flagship collaboration initiatives.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Experience serving in a public safety or first responder capacity (e.g., law enforcement, fire service, emergency medical services, health and human services, emergency management).
- Understanding of the IC; mission posture, structures, capabilities, and the intelligence process.
- Demonstrated oral and written communication skills, including demonstrated ability to draft and edit written reports of varying length and complexity, and to orally communicate effectively with audiences of varying seniority and expertise.
- Demonstrated interpersonal skills and superior ability to work effectively in both independent and in a team or collaborative environment.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE

L E A D I N G I N T E L L I G E N C E I N T E G R A T I O N

- Demonstrated leadership skills and ability to lead interagency interactions, build coalitions with IC elements and partners to achieve common goals.
- Demonstrated ability to anticipate counterterrorism issues relevant to the IC, United States Government, public safety partners and the private sector and recommend needed actions.
- Demonstrated analytical and critical thinking skills, including the demonstrated ability to think strategically, identify needs and requirements, develop recommendations, and evaluate outcomes against goals and objectives.
- Ability to anticipate issues relevant to the IC and United States government and recommend/implement needed actions.

Desired Requirements

- 3 to 5 years of experience working in a public safety or first responder capacity.
- 3 to 5 years of experience working in the Intelligence Community.
