Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI), Chief Operating Officer (COO) has the responsibility and authority for supervising, coordinating, providing guidance, and administering the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) direction to the ODNI, as well as providing guidance to the ODNI centers. This includes integrating and synchronizing policy, plans, positions, procedures, and cross-functional issues. The COO is responsible for synchronizing and integrating the ODNI staff to execute all missions and tasks designated by the DNI and the Principal Deputy Director of National Intelligence (PDDNI). In addition, the COO oversees the internal management of the ODNI.

The Office of The Director of National Intelligence, Office of Security (ODNI/SEC) provides full service area security support for ODNI. The selected candidate will be a part of a security team that provides daily security guidance and advice covering the full range of security disciplines. The ideal candidate must be able to provide clear, decisive guidance and incorporate risk management into the security decision-making process. The ability to communicate with senior ODNI officials on time-sensitive, high-profile, and complex issues is essential.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Plan and participate in the identification and resolution of complex or sensitive security related issues and concerns, serving as a senior Area Security Officer (ASO) for the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Security Office.
- Facilitate collaboration between ODNI Security, CRI Security, and Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) Security in investigating complex security issues that concern ODNI cadre, detailees, and contractors.
- Plan and facilitate the collection and analysis of complex security-related information, utilizing extensive knowledge of ODNI and CIA directives and policies to develop authoritative recommendations and guidance.
- Plan, develop, and present written and oral briefings on complex topics that pertain to all aspects of ODNI security in support of senior ODNI staff, CIA counterparts, and other government organizations.
- Plan and conduct investigations of complex security issues skillfully employing a variety of elicitation techniques and tactics including monitoring key verbal and nonverbal behaviors, sequencing questions, and asking questions designed to elicit subject behaviors.
- Plan and conduct formal analyses of the strengths and weaknesses of complex security programs, processes, and procedures and recommend new strategies for resolving complex problems or improving overall performance.

- Develop strategic and tactical plans to support ODNI security initiatives; develop, implement, and evaluate security programs in response to Intelligence Community (IC) directives and/or mission requirements.
- Provide substantive guidance and support regarding personnel security, industrial security, and other security issues to ODNI cadre and detailees, including those working at ODNI and other IC locations.
- Cultivate and maintain productive working relationships with security colleagues, CRI and CIA counterparts, and ODNI senior leadership to share information of interest, explain the specifics of security programs and procedures, and, when appropriate, present, justify, defend, negotiate, and/or settle matters involving significant or controversial issues.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Extensive knowledge of personnel, physical and technical security principles, concepts, regulations, and practices sufficient to serve in an ASO capacity for one or more ODNI components.
- Extensive knowledge of IC, CIA, and ODNI security regulations, policies, and procedures in order to address and resolve ODNI security issues, violations, and questions.
- Demonstrated ability to work in a complex security program, assess customer requirements, identify dependencies, and manage and mitigate risks.
- Demonstrated program management, analytic, and critical thinking skills, including the ability to conduct security program assessments, identify needs and requirements, and develop process improvement recommendations for the successful implementation of ODNI's security programs.
- Demonstrated ability to communicate, both verbally and in writing, complex information in a clear, concise manner that is targeted to and meets the needs of diverse audiences with different perspectives and objectives.
- Demonstrated ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment, mentor junior colleagues, and utilize strong organizational and interpersonal problem solving skills.
- Demonstrated ability to establish regular contact with high-level internal and external resources and customers, supplying or seeking information on security programs and issues; demonstrated use of tact when expressing ideas or opinions to senior leaders, customers, contractors, and other stakeholders.
- Demonstrated ability to listen to, clarify, and convey an understanding of others' ideas, comments, and questions, and integrate and build upon diverse opinions in a manner that encourages the formation of integrated solutions and positions.
