Former members of the Peace Corps may be considered for ODNI employment only if five full years have elapsed since separation from the Peace Corps.

- For a cadre assignment:
  - Current ODNI permanent cadre.
- For a detailee assignment:
  - Current Federal Government employees. (Current GS employees at the same grade or one grade lower than the advertised position grade may apply. )

Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Office of the Assistant Director of National Intelligence for Policy and Strategy (OADNI/P&S) is responsible for developing and coordinating Intelligence Community (IC)-wide policy; setting IC strategy; overseeing and promoting responsible information sharing and safeguarding; managing the execution of the DNI's controlled access program responsibilities; and advising the Director of National Intelligence (DNI) on initiatives. P&S' overriding aim is to build a more integrated, collaborative, and secure community.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Develop, evaluate, and disseminate a broad range of policies, processes, and guidance on subject areas including counterintelligence (CI), counterterrorism (CT), counterproliferation (CP), enabling functions, and intelligence disciplines and communicate these policies, processes, and guidelines to community stakeholders. Review and analyze policies, processes, and guidelines that are contained in United States Government (USG) and Intelligence Community (IC) Directives, Policy Guidance, Standards, plans, and memoranda to ensure equities are captured and relevant concerns are resolved.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Thorough knowledge of IC and related USG policies, directives, and standard operating procedures and ability to develop a broad range of IC-wide policies, processes, and guidelines. Thorough knowledge of the USG and its IC components, missions, and interrelationships and experience working either with or in a major USG or IC organization; thorough understanding of the authorities, roles, and responsibilities of the organizations within the IC community. This position is a Policy Officer, in the OADNI/P&S. The Policy Officer will be responsible for the formulation, development, production, and evaluation of a broad range of policies, processes, and guidance on mission enabling functions, and intelligence disciplines and will be responsible for working collaboratively and communicating with stakeholders across ODNI and the IC. The incumbent therefore will need to have an understanding of the ODNI and the IC, experience with ODNI and IC element activities and processes, the established ability to build productive working relationships with multiple stakeholders, and possess outstanding written and oral communication skills. Perform the review and analysis of policies, processes, and guidelines that are contained in United States Government (USG) and Intelligence Community (IC) Directives, Policy Guidance, Standards, plans, and memoranda to ensure equities are captured and relevant concerns are resolved. The incumbent therefore will need to have strong critical and analytical thinking skills.
