- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The mission of the National Counterintelligence & Security Center is to lead and support the U.S. Government's counterintelligence (CI) and security activities critical to protecting our nation; provide CI outreach to U.S. private sector entities at risk of foreign intelligence penetration; and issue public warnings regarding intelligence threats to the U.S.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Oversee the planning, evaluation, analysis, and detailed review of Intelligence Community (IC) policies, programs, and standards to ensure national security information is appropriately protected, based on current technologies, capabilities, and conditions; provide security expertise to identify and implement strategies to maximize IC security capabilities.
- Lead the planning, evaluation, development, and implementation of IC-wide policies, charters, directives, standards, training, and other official statutes/programs that ensure national security information is protected in operational environments.
- Oversee the planning and research for and serve as chair of IC-wide security committees; represent the Office if the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) at IC-wide forums and interagency working groups that oversee the development, implementation, and evaluation of IC-wide policies and programs.
- Lead the planning, preparation, and presentation of high-level briefings, bulletins, and other communications vehicles for senior IC and ODNI managers as well as other major stakeholders to ensure a comprehensive awareness of the development and implementation of IC-wide policies, programs, and standards.
- Oversee the planning, coordination, and analysis of complex technical information to identify subtle security system/facility vulnerabilities and recommend effective countermeasures; lead, plan, and implement the development of advanced technologies to enhance current security programs within the IC, ODNI, and Department of State (DoS).
- Lead the planning and execution of program management initiatives by identifying the resources needed to accomplish work, executing a spend plan, assessing variances from cost and schedule baseline, and reallocating resources as needed.
- Lead, initiate, cultivate, and maintain productive working relationships with security colleagues, IC security experts, DoS personnel, and other major stakeholders to develop policies, programs, and standards to improve the United States (US) technical security posture and, when appropriate, present, justify, defend, negotiate, and/or settle matters involving significant or controversial issues.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expert knowledge of IC components' security programs, processes, policies, and methodologies, and an understanding of how these security disciplines are incorporated into US facilities overseas.
- Expert knowledge of applicable federal laws, Presidential Directives, Executive Orders, and IC Directives affecting diplomatic security, technical security, physical security, cyber security, and counterintelligence awareness at overseas posts.
- Expert knowledge of project management concepts and principles and superior experience planning, organizing, developing, and implementing physical and technical security systems, programs, and/or policies.
- Expert knowledge of US Government security requirements and operations abroad as well as surveillance techniques and technologies; ability to serve on occasional overseas temporary duty assignments.
- Superior oral and written communication skills and ability to produce clear, logical, and concise products to influence senior leadership, communicate effectively with people at all staff levels (both internal and external to the organization), and brief management on reviews and findings,

- Superior analytical and critical thinking skills, including superior ability to think strategically, identify needs and requirements, and develop expert recommendations; superior ability to research, gather, analyze, summarize, and present qualitative and quantitative data and suggest actionable recommendations.
- Superior ability to establish regular contact with high-level internal and external resources and customers, supplying or seeking information on policies and standards; superior ability to tactfully express ideas or opinions to senior leaders, customers, and other stakeholders.
- Superior ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment, mentor junior colleagues, and utilize strong organizational and interpersonal problem solving skills.

Desired Requirements

- Understanding of CSfC strategy (accreditation procedures) and packages (especially enterprise wireless and Mobility) and the residual risks.
- Specific knowledge of implementation of wireless including WIDS, systems waivers, and existing operational practices.
- Familiarity with policy and guidance for unclassified wireless networks
- Familiarity with RF and power line communications technologies
