Component Mission

National Security Partnerships synchronizes IC support and whole of government efforts with federal, state and local governments, the private sector and the Department of Defense, ensuring IC outreach is coordinated, timely and relevant. It also provides key leadership for activities in four domains that operate across national sectors – aviation, maritime, space and cyber -- bringing the IC's activities in these domains into alignment, and facilitating coordinated engagement internal to the ODNI, across the IC and with the rest of the federal government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Represent the NIM for Cyber, ODNI, and the IC in ensuring effective IC integration and the consideration of IC equities in support of interagency policy development and implementation.
- Evaluate, integrate, and review planning efforts to understand and counter foreign cyber threats in coordination and collaboration with other U.S. Government agencies.
- Lead the monitoring and the implementation of interagency plans by coordinating and integrating competing requirements and priorities of multiple stakeholders; plan and participate in interagency meetings.
- Manage the identification of gaps and impediments that are negatively impacting successful IC cyber threat intelligence programs, plans and implementation efforts and develop solid and well-researched recommendations for policies/procedures designed to reduce these gaps.
- Promote, and share information and knowledge within ODNI and with other government agencies, and effectively establish, build, and leverage diverse and collaborative networks within these organizations.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expert knowledge and experience with interagency policy development processes, critical analysis, consensus building, as well as the application and integration of all instruments of national power in protecting the U.S. and its interests abroad.
- Expert knowledge and experience in strategic planning or execution of cyber threat intelligence, technical collection, or requirements management.

- Superior interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, including a demonstrated ability to develop innovative and flexible solutions for complex cross-organizational issues, taking initiative and making key contributions to group efforts.

Desired Requirements

- Superior ability to communicate complex information clearly, concisely, and in a manner that is targeted to and meets the needs of diverse audiences, to include senior-level policymakers.
- Superior ability to lead complex interagency projects, taking into account a diverse range of considerations and ensuring that the activities can be successfully completed.
