Component Mission

The Policy and Capabilities Directorate is focused on ensuring the IC is best postured to meet the future challenges and threats confronting our nation.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Direct the development and IC coordination of Statements of Capabilities, Enterprise Capability Documents, Analytic Issue Papers, and Capability Requirements Policy and Instructions.
- Develop and maintain interfaces and relationships with Department of Defense (DoD) Joint Capability Integration and Development System, Intelligence Community Acquisition Model, Independent Cost Estimate and Intelligence Planning, Programming, Budgeting and Evaluation processes.
- Manage team cognizance of intelligence capability gaps, potential mission or enterprise needs and intelligence capability proposals.
- Lead, plan, direct, orchestrate, assess and evaluate the quality of analysis and ensure competitive and alternative analyses are conducted on topics related to capability requirements and non-material solutions.
- Advise the DNI on matters pertaining to mission effectiveness of proposed NIP and MIP funded capability requirements through strategic planning, independent analyses, and program evaluation.
- Advise the DNI by providing alternative approaches for IC programs, requirements, and budgets to establish priority objectives, address projected threats, estimate costs, risk and tradeoffs, and identify/minimize resource constraints.
- Lead the development and presentation of findings, conclusions, options, and recommendations to Office of Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) and IC senior management.
- Lead analysis and evaluation (on quantitative/qualitative basis) of the effectiveness of current and planned NIP investments in meeting established IC goals and objectives. Evaluate and advise on organization, methods, procedures, and resources (NIP and MIP where appropriate) programs.
- Direct assessment, documentation, validation and approval for NIP funded capability requirements

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expert knowledge of the IC and its components, missions, and interrelationships, including the ability to lead broad-based teams regarding key IC issues.
- Expert knowledge and work experience in intelligence operations providing needs, capability gaps and capability requirements support to policy, planning, and/or operations strategy and development for a variety of disciplines (e.g. Geospatial Intelligence, Signals Intelligence, Measurements and Signatures Intelligence, and Communication Systems).

- Superior ability to apply quantitative and qualitative analytic techniques to lead teams evaluating and recommending appropriate alternatives to complex issues.
- Superior organizational and interpersonal skills, including a superior ability to establish and lead IC-wide teams, and effectively and independently coordinate and lead collaborative efforts, and to lead and mentor junior colleagues.
- Superior ability to initiate, cultivate, and maintain productive working relationships with IC and other DoD/ United States Government elements in order to study and identify new and innovative ways of generating and depicting needs and capability gaps that more directly capture utility.
- Superior ability to communicate, both orally and in written products, complex information in a clear, concise manner that is targeted to and meets the needs of diverse audiences with different perspectives and objectives.
- Expert knowledge of and experience in IC and DoD regulations, policy and procedures as they apply to Capability Requirements and Major Systems Acquisition oversight and reporting
