Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- The National Counterterrorism Center's Directorate of Operations Support is looking for an exercise planner with excellent tradecraft, writing and briefing skills to serve on our fast paced exercise team. The selected applicant will support a variety of exercises and have ample opportunity to write, brief, and collaborate closely with colleagues within NCTC and the wider IC.
- Identifies and gathers accurate and comprehensive information needed to solve complex problems and issues, analyzes and consolidates complex information, and consistently draws insightful and appropriate conclusions and findings as part of developing resource requirements and plans to support exercise design, planning, and execution.
- Design and develop crisis-response exercises related to a variety of scenarios involving counterterrorism resources and assets; develop and support the delivery of operational exercises, informational briefings, operational programs, etc.
- Develop exercise documentation to include scenarios, scripts, injects, exercise plans, control/evaluation handbooks, and after-action reports, etc.
- Maintain productive working relationships with ODNI staff, other IC organizations, international, Federal, state, local, and private/public service providers to respond effectively to mission issues, and coordinate strategic planning, best practices, lessons learned, programming, and policy issues.
- Works closely with internal and external customers to recognize or define new projects and determine project needs, proactively ensuring customers are informed of project status, changes and other issues that could affect them.
- Prepare and take part in the presentation of senior-level briefings and reports on plans, exercises, and operational and crisis management plans that respond to the needs of select audiences.
- Provide advice to senior managers on exercise-related issues, policies, and procedures, applying knowledge of the interdependencies of various requirements, and present information in a manner that responds to the needs of select audiences.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Demonstrated ability to provide leadership, oversight, and guidance to the effective management of complex projects.
- Critical thinking skills and the ability to think strategically combined with detail-oriented work habits.
- Demonstrated ability to be flexible and work effectively alone or in a collaborative environment; creative problem-solving skills and initiative in carrying out mission responsibilities based on management guidance.
- Demonstrated ability to manage and mitigate risks, assess customer requirements, identify dependencies, and develop responsive project plans; demonstrated ability to estimate costs and other resources using quantitative analysis to project requirements.
- Demonstrated ability to express complex ideas and insights verbally to a variety of audiences.
- Ability to communicate effectively and maintain regular contact with peers, management, and counterparts across the USG.

Desired Requirements

- Previous experience working within the counterterrorism or exercise community successfully leading or serving as representational lead for one or more phases of the exercise cycle commencing with planning through evaluation and recommendation development.
