- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Maintain 24/7 global situational awareness by independently researching and analyzing raw intelligence reporting and maintaining awareness of current intelligence issues.
- Develop and provide situational awareness information to ODNI, Intelligence Community (IC), United States (US) government, and other appropriate leaders.
- Develop and implement strategies to augment and extend strategic collection capabilities, and coordinate with national, defense, and domestic authorities to ensure alignment with key intelligence priorities.
- Monitor, sort, prioritize, and analyze intelligence and operational message traffic.
- Perform community outreach and collaboration activities by planning and engaging in internal and external information sharing, fostering collaborative relationships with interagency partners, and communicating timely and relevant intelligence information.
- Participate in the preparation of reports and oversight material for collection enterprise situation awareness, to ensure substantive accuracy and consistency with applicable policies and statutes; edit and provide quality control review of written products.
- Develop and disseminate oral briefings and written reports to ODNI leadership on intelligence issue activities and/or threats.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Knowledge of intelligence analysis and production.
- Ability to develop written products, as well as the ability communicate with counterparts and senior officials on products, answer questions, and provide requested information.
- Ability to maintain and develop effective working relationships with counterparts and more senior staff in the IC for the purpose of sharing information.
- Detailed knowledge of the ODNI and larger IC mission, operations, tradecraft, capabilities, and requirements.
- Ability to make assessments of time-sensitive issues, adjust priorities, and change focus quickly as demands change.
- Ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment, coupled with established and effective interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills.
- Ability to work rotating shifts of 12.5 hours in a fast-paced demanding environment.
- Knowledge of relationships and interrelationships in the IC and collection capabilities, including crisis/operations center with 24-hour/7-day responsibilities.
- Knowledge of defense, domestic, and national IC collection issues and capabilities.
- Good oral and written communication skills, including the ability to clearly convey complex information and technical data to all levels of management.
- Ability to work collaboratively with senior defense, domestic, and national IC officials.
- Interpersonal and organization skills, including ability to manage competing priorities under strict guidelines while maintaining superior customer service.
- Ability to work effectively with teams, build and sustain professional relationships, and exert influence effectively at all levels within and across organizations on a myriad of collection situational awareness topics.
