Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- The Directorate of Terrorist Identity's is looking for an Identity Intelligence Analyst—an experienced intelligence officer with strong critical thinking and communications skills to support the group's mission. The analyst will support the directorate's identity intelligence work pertaining to the Terrorist Identities Datamart Environment (TIDE). The analyst will:
 - Develop process flows for branch and group in order to refine workflows.
 - Communicate regularly with internal and external peers and counterparts to collaborate on intelligence issues and conduct initial assessments of the types of information and circumstances that may create opportunities to pursue joint-targeting activities.
 - Author, review, and provide quality control of case notes and reports detailing findings of analysis, examinations, and conclusions.
 - Provide training and mentorship to both contractor and USG personnel on process improvement.
 - Use TIDE and support services, as required, to properly preserve, enhance, and archive enhancements.
 - Possess the ability to remain open-minded and change opinions on the basis of new information and requirements; basic ability to support group decisions, accept and incorporate feedback, and solicit opinions from coworkers.
 - Manage special projects as assigned.
 - Have thorough knowledge of IC organizations, policies, and procedures, and their requirements with regard to terrorist identities intelligence research and analysis.
 - Have the ability to communicate clearly, both orally and in writing.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Thorough knowledge of terrorist identities analysis coupled with extensive knowledge of associated databases and watchlisting procedures.
- Ability and willingness to be flexible and adaptive to perform a wide variety of tasks, change focus quickly, and adapt to meet mission requirements; demonstrates exemplary teamwork and collaboration skills.
- Ability to develop effective professional and interpersonal relationships with peers and colleagues in the ODNI, the IC, and USG, and to earn their confidence and trust.
- Interpersonal, organizational, and problem solving skills, including an ability to work effectively at a senior level within an interagency environment on complex issues requiring negotiation and consensus building.
- Thorough knowledge of the mission, charter, roles, and responsibilities of the ODNI, IC, and USG agencies, and how these organizations can effectively integrate their terrorist identities analysis capabilities.

Desired Requirements

- Ability to work under pressure with strict deadlines while maintaining a high level of attention to detail.
- Familiarity with Internet/web-based tools, databases and search techniques.
