Position Information

This is an opportunity for:

- An internal candidate to fill a GS-15 cadre position.
- A Federal Government employee to serve on a two-year reimbursable detail assignment in the ODNI. The detail assignment may be extended an additional year if all parties agree.

Who May Apply

Current GS employees at the same grade or up to two grades lower than the advertised position grade may apply.

Former members of the Peace Corps may be considered for ODNI employment only if five full years have elapsed since separation from the Peace Corps.

- For a cadre assignment:
 - Current ODNI permanent cadre.
- For a detailee assignment:
 - Current Federal Government employees. (Current GS employees at the same grade or up to two grades lower than the advertised position grade may apply.)

Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The mission of the National Counterintelligence & Security Center is to lead and support the U.S. Government's counterintelligence (CI) and security activities critical to protecting our nation; provide CI outreach to U.S. private sector entities at risk of foreign intelligence penetration; and issue public warnings regarding intelligence threats to the U.S.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Design and manage Integration Plans in accordance with Intelligence Community Directive 751, Integrated Offensive Counterintelligence Activities.
- Lead assessments to leverage best practices and lessons learned.
- Support briefings to senior IC officials and other major stakeholders concerning collaboration progress, issues and challenges.
- Provide offensive CI subject matter expertise support, including Executive level information and decision briefings, to the National Intelligence Manager(s), the National Security Council, and senior leaders and policymakers.
- Conduct Intelligence Community (IC)-wide integration of national-level offensive CI activities in support of National-level priorities.
- Formulate Measures of Effectiveness and Performance, requirements, solicit collection support, lead/participate in working groups, and maintain close and continuing cooperation with CI stakeholders/mission partners.
- Develop innovative solutions to enhance the operational support to those components authorized to conduct Offensive CI activities.
- Research and participate in the development of policies, strategy, and procedures in furtherance of the CI mission.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expert knowledge on the intelligence tradecraft of our adversaries.
- Superior analytical and critical thinking skills, including the superior ability to think strategically, identify needs and requirements, develop recommendations, and evaluate outcomes against goals and objectives.

- Superior interpersonal skills and superior ability to work effectively in both independent and in a team or collaborative environment.
- Expert level understanding and experience with offensive CI missions and authorities under Executive Order 12333, as amended, along with an understanding of NCSC and the ODNI.
- Demonstrated superior organizational and interpersonal skills, specifically, the superior ability to plan strategically and manage competing priorities, the ability to negotiate, build consensus, and work effectively in a collaborative environment, and the superior ability to establish and maintain professional networks across all levels of management both internal and external.
- Demonstrated ability to develop and contribute to complex written products, as well as the ability to brief counterparts and senior officials on those products, answer detailed questions, and provide supporting information.
- Knowledge of the ODNI and larger IC mission, operations, tradecraft, capabilities, and requirements.
- Strong oral and written communication skills, including the ability to clearly convey complex information and technical data to all levels of management.
- Demonstrated ability to work effectively with teams, build and sustain professional relationships, and exert influence effectively at all levels within and across organizations on a myriad of situational awareness topics.
- Experience: Generally, ten years of related work experience.
- Education: Bachelor's degree in subject matter area, or closely related discipline.

Desired Requirements

- Experience working directly for or with components with the authority to conduct Offensive CI activities
- Graduate of advanced CI and IC training courses
