Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of Mission Integration (MI) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. MI is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, MI is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. MI is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

Serve as an intelligence advisor on covert action and the Exceptionally Sensitive Reporting and Analysis (ESRA) Program.

Manage relationship and requirements between the ODNI and NSC regarding covert action and ESRA.

Identify emerging information sharing trends and issues for CAPCO, DMI, and DNI leadership.

Coordinate covert action readbooks, staff packages, and reports within the ODNI and between the ODNI, NSC, and CIA for policy planning.

Participate in policy meetings and maintain awareness of policy decisions and events relating to covert action.

Serve as covert action focal point for the ODNI by managing access briefings and rosters for appropriate personnel. Brief ODNI executives on covert action programs updates and process changes.

Coordinate and manage requirements and analyze the value of reporting within the ESRA program, which protects and disseminates diplomatic and policy-sensitive reporting on behalf of the NSC.

Plan, develop, and implement programs, policies, and procedures that result in the effective sharing of information across the Government while protecting Intelligence and Law Enforcement sources and methods, operational equities, and U.S. persons' privacy.

Coordinate work activities, assignments, and projects with managers internal to the ODNI and across the Intelligence Community (IC) to ensure their understanding and the effective completion of initiatives and requirements.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

Experience supporting the exchange of intelligence information between collectors, analysts, and end users in order to improve national and homeland security.

Interpersonal, organizational, and problem-solving skills, including a strong ability to work effectively at the highest levels within an interagency environment on complex issues requiring sensitive negotiations and consensus-building.

Knowledge of the mission, charter, roles, and responsibilities of the ODNI, IC, and U.S. Government agencies, and how these organizations can effectively cooperate in implementing information sharing and safeguarding plans and programs.

Ability to logically analyze, synthesize, and judge information and review and incorporate multiple sources of information in performing assignments.

Ability to develop effective professional relationships with peers and colleagues in ODNI, the IC, and U.S. Government, and to earn their confidence and trust.
