Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Chief Operating Officer (COO) has the responsibility for advising the Director of National Intelligence (DNI) and administering the DNI's vision and direction to the ODNI enterprise. This includes synchronizing policy, plans, procedures, and cross-functional issues. The COO is responsible for integrating the ODNI staff to execute all missions and tasks designated by the DNI and the Principal Deputy Director of National Intelligence (PDDNI), and for overseeing the internal management of the ODNI.

The COO oversees all ODNI business operations, including such areas as human resources, diversity & inclusion, finance and budget, information technology, security, facilities, and information management. The COO is also responsible for ODNI's emergency planning.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

The Foreign Malign Influence Center is a new start, formally standing up in Spring 2022. It serves as the Government's central and primary organization for integrating intelligence and supporting USG and partner efforts, including foreign allies, to counter foreign malign influence operations. The FMIC is the mission manager for the IC and works closely across the federal government to support state and local partners. In addition, the FMIC has responsibility for integrating and leading the IC's election security efforts to counter threats to the Federal elections.

Plan, research, develop, and communicate in-depth analyses of complex and significant national, regional, and/or global issues for senior policymakers and key components in the Intelligence Community (IC), law enforcement, and the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI).

Initiate, cultivate, and maintain productive working relationships with senior policymakers across the IC in order to coordinate strategy development activities and evolving requirements and promote the implementation of mission and enterprise objectives.

Provide extensive guidance and leadership to multiple teams in the production of well-crafted analytic products relating to election security and foreign malign influence in support of ODNI's malign influence posture.

Develop and maintain working relationships with ODNI officials and throughout the intelligence and policy communities; identify issues and developments with internal and external peers, communicating regularly to exchange subject information.

Develop and sustain a professional network with IC analysts, analytic managers, and collection managers on election security and foreign malign influence issues.

Plan, prepare, and present written and oral briefings to senior internal and external customers on significant intelligence issues; explain complex concepts to non-expert customers and tailor the product to correspond to customer needs.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

Demonstrated interpersonal skills and positive team building abilities.

Demonstrated ability to effectively plan, develop and write high-quality, complex analytic products, summaries, and briefings on key US foreign policy and national security objectives focused on election security and foreign malign influence.

Extensive knowledge of IC organizations; IC mission posture, structures, capabilities, processes, and policy development.

Demonstrated ability to develop and support the delivery of comprehensive and sophisticated intelligence briefings to senior IC officials and other senior administration advisors; demonstrated ability to collect, compile, and synthesize intelligence materials that accurately and effectively address customers' needs and questions.

Demonstrated analytic and critical thinking skills, including demonstrated capability to think strategically; effectively express complex, multi-discipline ideas and insights verbally and in writing to a variety of audiences up to and including senior leadership.

Extensive knowledge of IC policy and procedures, as well as an extensive ability to maintain and develop contacts within ODNI and the intelligence and policy communities for the purposes of exchanging information.

Desired Requirements

Demonstrated ability to effectively prioritize and manage multiple tasks and projects, to include time sensitive deliverables for senior DNI and IC leadership.

Demonstrated successful track record of execution in a collaborative team environment.

Extensive knowledge of political, cultural, social, historical, economic, military and diplomatic traits and behaviors related to strategic communications, information operations, election security and foreign malign influence.

Expertise in Russia or China.
