Component Mission

The mission of the National Counterintelligence & Security Center is to lead and support the U.S. Government's counterintelligence (CI) and security activities critical to protecting our nation; provide CI outreach to U.S. private sector entities at risk of foreign intelligence penetration; and issue public warnings regarding intelligence threats to the U.S.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

The Center for Security Evaluation (CSE) represents the Intelligence Community (IC) in protecting national security equities against counterintelligence and security threats to diplomatic missions abroad and other U.S. government facilities worldwide. CSE provides continuous collaboration with the Department of State (DoS) and the IC for the planning, design, construction, and operation of diplomatic facilities abroad to ensure they meet certification standards and to protect our national security information and personnel. CSE conducts assessments of technical, physical, and information security vulnerabilities and develops emerging technologies to improve security countermeasures.

The Center for Security Evaluation (CSE) is looking for a Construction Project Manager/Team Lead to work critical issues in the Center for Security Evaluation (CSE) located at ICC-B in Bethesda, MD. The individual selected for this position would be working directly with the Department of State Bureaus of Overseas Building Operations (OBO) and Diplomatic Security (DS) to formulate, develop, produce, and evaluate a broad range of policies, processes, and guidance on mission functions related to construction of diplomatic facilities overseas.

- Develop, coordinate, and prepare Office of the Director of National Intelligence's (ODNI) strategic and tactical planning efforts and use the developed plans to ensure the sound security of construction projects and design reviews in critical threat environments.
- - Provide guidance and oversee the design reviews of contractor staff. Participate in interactive design reviews with Architecture Engineering firms.
- Continue to expand the Construction Security Group's IC and Department of State (DoS) network.
- Review the design summaries and memos presented to DoS and the IC. Participate in the Construction Security Review Board (CSRB).
- Review construction security project management activities for multiple United States (US) diplomatic construction projects abroad, ensuring that technical, physical, procedural, and transit security elements are addressed.

- Coordinate, and provide direction to DoS construction teams, certification and accreditation teams and technical security staffs to ensure adherence to construction plans.
- Oversee the identification, analysis, and mitigation of risks in dynamic and unpredictable designs and construction projects.
- Ensure all designs are in compliance with DoS, Intelligence Community (IC), and the Overseas Security Policy Board (OSPB) security requirements.
- Plan, participate, and facilitate design review issue resolution meetings to ensure that IC best-practice methodologies are implemented in the construction of US diplomatic facilities abroad.
- Plan, coordinate, and facilitate meetings with senior ODNI officials to provide security status reports and structured recommendations for improving ODNI's effectiveness in providing security for current facility construction projects in critical threat environments.
- Initiate, cultivate, and maintain productive working relationships with security colleagues, IC security experts, senior Foreign Service staff, construction personnel, and ODNI management to provide security briefings, status reports and structured recommendations regarding the security of construction projects.
- Extensive knowledge of domestic IC and DoS overseas building operations and diplomatic security systems, standards, and requirements, including technical, physical, procedural, transit security elements, and technical security countermeasures.
- Extensive knowledge of construction security policies related to domestic and DoS overseas facilities, including demonstrated ability to manage, analyze, and synthesize classified material regarding security standards, policies and procedures.
- Extensive foreign field experience in security, program management, and/or other IC security activities as well as availability for foreign and domestic travel.
- Demonstrated ability to communicate, both verbally and in writing, complex information in a clear, concise manner that is targeted to and meets the needs of diverse audiences with different perspectives and objectives.
- Demonstrated ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment, mentor junior colleagues, and utilize strong organizational and interpersonal problem solving skills.
