Component Mission

The Director of National Intelligence (DNI) serves as the head of the Intelligence Community (IC). The DNI also acts as the principal advisor to the President and the National Security Council for intelligence matters related to national security; and oversees and directs the implementation of the National Intelligence Program. The DNI leads intelligence integration and forges an intelligence community that delivers the most insightful intelligence possible.

The Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Enterprise Capacity (DDNI/EC) is responsible to the DNI for all matters pertaining to IC resources, workforce, systems, technology and infrastructure, with five reporting components: Acquisition, Procurement and Facilities, IC Chief Financial Officer, IC Chief Human Capital Officer, IC Chief Information Officer, and Systems & Resource Analyses

The Office of the Chief Human Capital Officer (CHCO) supports the Office of the Director of National Intelligence by establishing and overseeing the implementation of the full range of Human Capital programs, processes, and policies. The CHCO has established the Strategic Human Capital Plan for the Intelligence Community (IC) that deals directly with talent, performance, and leadership to attract, engage, and unify an innovative and results-focused workforce in support of the National Intelligence Strategy—and ultimately the security of our nation. Following the IC Strategic HC Plan, the Office of the CHCO develops and implements policies, practices, and processes that leverage commonality across the IC and maximizes the strengths of individual agencies.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Lead the following IC functional areas: policy, legislation, recruitment, outreach, marketing, communications, and joint duty. All functions require collaboration with IC elements, collection and analysis of data, and strategic planning.
- Oversee Communities of Practice and encourage innovation, collaboration, academic excellence and cooperation.
- Serve as the principal advise to CHCO and ODNI leadership in areas of responsibility.
- Ensure that ODNI responsibilities described in ODNI Intelligence Community Directives are met.
- Manage implementation of IC HC Vision 2020. Manage inquires and requirements from Congress, GAO, OMB and elsewhere on various human capital topics including return on investment of outreach and recruitment efforts.
- Brief congressional staff and representatives of other organizations to ensure that CHCO's equities and programs are represented.
- Identify, evaluate, and recommend innovative solutions to complex human capital outreach, recruitment, joint duty and policy issues throughout the IC.
- Provide strategic recommendations for the implementation of short and long-term efforts affecting IC-wide human capital programs and resources.
- Foster an environment of inclusiveness and collaboration and support the development, recruitment and retention of a diverse workforce.
- Lead, manage, and direct a professional staff level, evaluate performance, collaborate on goal setting across the IC enterprise, and provide feedback and guidance regarding personal and professional development opportunities.
- Manage the transition of the Pat Roberts Intelligence Scholarship Program, IC Centers of Academic Excellence, and the National Intelligence Analysis Summer Seminar programs coming from DIA in FY20. These programs will require an understanding of working with academia as well as grant administration.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expert knowledge of federal and/or IC human resources policies and practices, particularly those dealing with pay, performance and occupational structures, relationships, and competencies.
- Superior ability to plan, manage, and complete a complex, multi-faceted project involving government and contractor personnel.
- Superior ability to plan, design, develop, and implement innovative HR strategies and solutions in large, complex organizations.
- Superior communication skills, both written and oral, and superior ability to produce clear, logical, and concise products.
- Superior interpersonal skills and ability to work effectively, independently, and in a team or collaborative environment.
- Superior analytical and critical thinking skills, including the ability to think strategically and identify needs, requirements, and develop recommendations.

Desired Requirements
