Position Information

This is an opportunity for:

- An internal or external candidate to fill a GS - 11 cadre position.
- A Federal Government employee to serve on a two-year reimbursable detail assignment in the ODNI. The detail assignment may be extended an additional year if all parties agree.

Who May Apply

Former members of the Peace Corps may be considered for ODNI employment only if five full years have elapsed since separation from the Peace Corps.

- For a cadre assignment:
 - Current ODNI permanent cadre employees at the same grade or one grade lower than the advertised position grade may apply.
 - Current Federal Government employees at the same grade as the advertised position grade may apply.

- Candidates outside the Federal Government.
- Current ODNI Staff Reserve employees. (A staff reserve employee who currently occupies this position may not apply.)
- For a detailee assignment:
 - Current Federal Government employees at the same grade or one grade lower than the advertised grade may apply.

Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.
- For a selected non-Federal Government candidate, salary will be established within the salary range listed above, based on education and experience.

Component Mission

The Cyber Threat Intelligence Integration Center (CTIIC) is the DNI's Intelligence Community (IC) lead for cyber intelligence issues. CTIIC is responsible for integrating IC collection and analysis on cyber intelligence issues, and for coordinating and supporting the IC in providing accurate, timely, comprehensive support to national policy and decision makers. CTIIC also coordinates and monitors the Presidential-mandated Comprehensive National Cybersecurity Initiative, among other duties.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

Develop and produce, under supervisor direction, defined finished intelligence products in support of United States (US) foreign policy and national security interests.

Build global situational awareness of significant cyber threat intelligence by independently identifying, researching, and assessing intelligence reporting.

Maintain awareness of current cyber intelligence issues and policymaker priorities.

Research and produce intelligence products that leverage multiple sources of information to set significant cyber threat reporting in context and highlight US response actions.

Coordinate with IC officers and federal cyber centers to gather insights into significant cyber threat reporting.

Build understanding of significant cyber threats for non-specialist customers by explaining activity and avoiding jargon.

Perform proactive community outreach and collaboration activities by planning and engaging in internal and external information sharing, fostering collaborative relationships with interagency partners, and communicating timely and relevant intelligence information.

Promote the sharing of information and knowledge from intelligence reports by effectively recognizing, valuing, building, and leveraging diverse and collaborative networks within ODNI, with other federal cyber centers, and across the IC.

Develop oral briefings and written reports for ODNI leadership and senior internal and external customers on cyber intelligence activities and/or threats.

Attend internal and external training, seminars, or conferences on broad or more strategic subject areas.

Develop and continually expand personal knowledge of analytic tradecraft and cyber and technology issues.

Maintain contacts with counterparts in other IC organizations to keep abreast of current developments, resolve problems, eliminate duplication, and share information.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

Demonstrated ability to research, develop, and write high-quality analysis and briefings on key US foreign policy and national security objectives focused on a specific region or transnational issue for IC consumers and policymakers.

Strong oral and written communication skills, including the ability to clearly convey complex information and technical data.

Basic knowledge of IC policy and procedures and demonstrated knowledge of analytic tradecraft and ability to communicate intelligence information and judgments to generalists as well as specialists.

Demonstrated ability to work effectively both independently and in a team or collaborative environment.

Demonstrated ability to apply knowledge of ODNI, IC organizations, and relevant customer organizations or operations (e.g., military, policymakers, and law enforcement) to effectively translate their requirements and provide appropriate responses to meet customer needs.

Demonstrated ability to maintain and develop effective working relationships within the IC for exchanging information and promote information-sharing practices across the ODNI and IC.

Desired Requirements

Previous experience working as an analyst covering regional or cyber issues.

College or graduate school degree in international relations, computer science, or related areas is preferred.
