

(Page 1 of 1)

In the name of Allah, and may prayers and peace be upon his messenger and his companions

The honorable Shaykh Abu 'Abdallah...may Allah bless him

May Allah's mercy and peace and blessings be upon you...and happy 'Eid...and we ask Allah to bring back to Muslims al-'Eid holiday and the month of Ramadan and to grant us and our nation in Yemen victory and blessing...

I ask Allah the almighty that you and the ones you love and the honorable family are in good health...furthermore,

Attached with this letter is a gift for the month of Ramadan. It consists of a report clarifying the condition of the struggle with Allah's enemies, in addition to good news about victory, which was visible on the horizon. Furthermore, books that we were able to compose that reflect our mission were translated into Urdu and Pashtu, and the three books are:

- 1- "Manhaj Al-Ghuraba' Fi Muwajahat Al Jahiliyah" (TN: The Approach of the Strangers/Foreigners in Confronting the Pre-Islamic Epoch, i.e. state of ignorance)
- 2- "Aham Min Tabri'at Al Ashkhas...Safa' Al Manhaj" (TN: The purity of the methodology (Muslim approach) is more important than absolving (the guilt) of the people)
- 3- "Ahkam Al-Gharat Al-Fida'iyah Wa Al-Tatarrus" (TN: The Rulings Covering Martyrdom Attacks and on Taking Humans as Shields)

And shortly, Allah willing, we are going to compose a book titled "Al Sira' Al Islami Al-Sahyu Sahlibi...Haqiqiya Wa Jathurah Wa Iba'dah" (TN: Islamic Zionist Crusaders...the Truth about Them and Their Distant Roots), which falls under a series we called "Salsala Bina' Al-Shakhsiya al-Muslima" (Series on the Building of the Muslim Personality). And we ask Allah the almighty to guide us to success while composing this series.

I wrote this letter in order to keep in contact with you, and I hope that you receive my letter and respond to it, to make sure that our letter arrived, since the last letter was lost on the way. Everyone over here sends their regards, especially my children Asadullah Al-Miqdad and Sayfullah Khalid.

And, until we meet, we ask Allah not to waste our trust...

Your brother, 'Abd-al Majid 'Abd-al-Majd, "Abu Miqdad"

12 Ramadan 1430 (TN: 2 September 2009)